SAVANNAH, Ga. - The No. 19-ranked Armstrong Atlantic State University softball squad has earned an at-large bid into the 2014 NCAA Division II Softball Championships, announced Monday morning. The Pirates are the No. 3 seed in the Southeast Regional.

Armstrong (30-12) will travel to second-seeded Anderson (SC) (42-10) for action on May 9-11 in one of two four-team Southeast Regional sites. Top-seeded North Georgia (43-9) is the other regional site.

The Pirates will face sixth-seeded USC Aiken (32-14) in a first-round game on Friday, May 9. Anderson (SC) will face seventh-seeded Georgia College (34-15) in the other first-round game. The double-elimination tournament continues through Saturday and finishes on Sunday.

The winners of the two four-team regionals will meet in a best two-of-three Super Regional on May 15-16 at the highest remaining seed.

The Pirates advanced to the NCAA Division II Softball World Series last year for the first time in program history. This is the 12th appearance for Armstrong softball in the NCAA Championships in the last 14 seasons.

Game times will be announced on a conference call on Tuesday with the participating schools.
